Even when practiced discreetly, raised eyebrows and disapproving glances still meet with those who dare to udder-feed in public.

When Cartoon Worlds Collide

A Twistedly Absurd Mashup of Politics and Comics

Thursday, October 6, 7-8 p.m.
at the
Verona Public Library

Come share an evening of absurdity with two nationally-syndicated cartoonists, Leigh Rubin creator of the comic RUBES®, and “Wisconsin State Journal” editorial cartoonist Phil Hands. This odd couple will riff on each other’s cartoons and show how the twisted minds of two very different cartoonists work.

Rubin’s work focuses primarily on the hilarity of animal and human nature, while Hands draws stranger creatures: politicians. So if you’ve ever wanted to meet a professional smart aleck or a full-time doodler, don’t miss this event.

Door prizes will be raffled to unlucky winners.
